DROUGHT BROKEN
ON HAWAII NOWThere is good evidence that the drought has been broken on the island of Hawaii, at all events in some parts of the island. Word has been received by H. Hackfeld & Co. from the Hawaii Mill Co., Hilo, that four inches of rain had fallen in that district last week.On this island the heavy showers in Honolulu appear thus far not to have been duplicated on the plantations.
Yesterday's report for a day previous gave Waialua only one-half inch and Waipahu but half as much. This morning's report from Waipahu only adds nine-hundredths of an inch to the rainfall in that section for the previous twenty-four hours.There was high wind at Waialae last night, but no rain either there or at Ewa plantation, according to the report brought to town by Frederick Meyer, manager of Waialae plantation.R. T. CONDUCTOR GETS SCALP WOUNDConductor Taylor, car 35 on the Rapid Transit Waialae branch, met with a painful accident this morning on his first trip out. He was standing on the end of a seat cleaning the gutters of his car when his head came in contact with the corner of an iron roof of a house at Maillani that standsso close to the track that but a few inches separates its roof from the roof of a passing car. The collision gounted out a piece of Taylor's scalp about two inches long and nearly three-quarters of an inch wide, making a very nasty wound. If his head had been a few inches higher the result would have been fearful.Taylor made a round trip over the road before he was relieved.***** ceeding Pastor and Mrs. Feimly afternoon, to receive the children who desire to attend the German begin at once. All children, especially former pupils, are cor-
